An Earnest Word

TO

YOUNG MEN AND LADIES.

Thousands and thousands suffer from the evil effect of Self-abuse. The consequences of this crime against nature are so dreadful that if not prevented in time the victim has to resign all hope of happiness in this life.

Having cured thousands, and restored them again to a useful life, I hereby offer my services, with the assurance that any confidence put in me will not be betrayed. The medicine is put up in packages, each containing sufficient to effect a cure. Price $5.

Letters must be directed to DR. FELIX BRUNON,

PROSPECTUS

The Daily Progress,

A Commercial and Business Newspaper published
IN THE TOWN OF NEWBERN.

AN APPEAL to the CITIZENS of NEWBERN.

AT the request of many of your business men, I have made the necessary arrangements to commence between the 20th of August and the 1st of September, 1858, the publication of a DAILY JOURNAL in your town.

The DAILY PROGRESS will be devoted exclusively to your interest and to the interest of the citizens of the State. Will you sustain me in this important and indispensable enterprise to your commercial prosperity? I can undertake it, and I pledge to you, in advance, what poor abilities I possess, and all the zeal and energy requisite to give you an independent, useful and interesting paper; but without your cordial co-operation and support I can accomplish nothing, and must fail. I shall rely then upon your generous aid, and with your strong arm to assist me, I DAN, and I WILL carry the enterprise through to success, and make it one of the permanent fixtures of the place so dear to us all.

It is unnecessary to point out to you the necessity of a Daily Journal to enable you to compete successfully with other commercial towns in this and the adjoining States for the trade of the West. Your interests now demand it. The people of Wilmington, Charleston, Norfolk, Petersburg and Richmond commune with the interior through their Daily papers. Will you longer suffer them to possess this important advantage over you? The West has now been brought by Railroad to your very doors, and is there knocking, with her rich productions, for admittance. The natural and inevitable consequences of procrastination are now being felt. No town can stand still—it must either advance in commercial and general importance and improve in its religious, moral and social character, or it must decline. Now it is for you to say whether you will rise or fall in the great contest for the Western trade. You certainly cannot expect to maintain your ground unless you are as well prepared as your neighbors. Experience proves that towns, sometsmes, like individuals, when thrown upon their own resources, often develope a prosperity far in advance of those which rely upon adventitious or natural advantages. There is no reason why Newbern should not again crowd her wharves with the products of foreign countries, which, as in times gone by, would be given in exchange for the products of the West. There is no reason why schools should not rise up among you and colleges flourish in your midst. But your experience, your intelligence tells you that you cannot stand still and witness these things. You cannot, you should not rely upon the Journals of other towns to advertise your goods—to inform the people of the West that you can, that you will, trade with them to equal if not to better advantage than any other market, because you are nearer to them and can transport goods and produce with greater facility and less expense than others can. You cannot rely upon Journals of other towns to point out and urge the advantages possessed by Newbern for Factories and Schools, which must and will spring into existence as soon as they are properly and energetically advocated.

All the worldly interests I have now is, or soon will be, indentified with your community, and with you I intend to sink or swim. But in the publication of this journal, while I shall use all honorable means to gain your approbation and give you satisfaction, both as a citizen and as an editor, I shall endeavor to do justice to our neighbors, and at all times and under all circumstances, look to the common welfare of the "Good Old North State." Now to you, people of Newbern, I commit this enterprise, persuaded that you will see the necessity for a powerful effort in this matter. Henceforward, for weal or woe, I am with you. Having a practical knowledge of the printing business, and having been engaged for many years of my life upon daily and weekly newspapers, I flatter myself that I can make a paper that will meet your wants, and one to which you, as citizens of Newbern, may point with some degree of satisfaction. If incessant toil be one of the elements of success I am determined to do my part, and I confidently expect you to do yours.

The Daily Progress will be printed with new type on a new press, and will be of respectable size.

Baltimore Lock Hospital.

DR. JOHNSTON.

THE founder of this Celebrated Institution offers the most Certain, Speedy, and only effectual remedy, in the world for Gleets, Strictures, Seminal weakness, Pains in the Loins, Constitutional Debility, Impotency, Weakness of the Back and Limbs, Affections of the Kidneys, Palpitations of the Heart, Dyspepsia, Nervous Irritability, Disease of the Head, Throat, Nose or Skin; and all those serious and melancholy Disorders arising from all those Destructive habits of youth which destroy body and mind. These secret and solitary practices more fatal to their victims than the song of the Syrens to the Mariners Ulysses, blighting their most brilliant hopes or anticipations, rendering marriage, &c., impossible.

Young Men

especially, who have become the victims of Solitary Vice, that deadful and destructive habit, which annually sweeps to an untimely grave thousands of young men of the most exalted talents and brilliant intellect, who might otherwise have entranced listening Senates with the thunders of eloquence, or waked to ecstacy the living lyre, may call with all confidence.

Marriage.

Married Persons, or, Young Men contemplating marriage, being aware of Phisical weakness, Organic Debility, Deformities, &c., should immediately consult Dr. J., and be restored to perfect health.

He who places himself under the care of Dr. Jhonston may religiously confide in his honor as a gentleman, and confidently rely upon his skill as a physcian immedietely cured, and full vigor restored.

This disease is the penalty most frequently paid by those who have become the victims of improper indulgences.—Young persons are too apt to commit excesses from not being aware of the dreadful consequences that may ensue.—Now, who that understands the subject will pretend to deny that the power of Procreation is lost sooner by those falling into improper habits than by the prudent. Besides being deprived the pleasure of healthy offspring, the most serious and destructive symptoms to the body and mind arise.—The system becomes deranged, the physical and mental powers weakened, nervous debility, dyspepsia, palpitation of the heart, indigestion, a wasting of the frame, cough, symptoms of consumption, etc.

Nervous Debility.

Weakness of the system. Nervous Debility and premature decay generally arise from the Destructive habit of youth, that solitary practice so fatal to the healthful existence of man, and it is the young who who are most apt to become its victims, from an ignorance of the dangers to which they subject themselves. Parents and Guardians are often misled with respect to the cause or source of disease in their sons and wards. Alas! how often do they ascribe to other causes the wasting o the frame, Palpitation of the Heart, Dyspepsia, Indigestion, derangement of the Nervous System, Cough, and Symptoms of Consumption, also, those serious mental effects, such as loss of memory, depression of spirits, or peculiar fits of melancholy, when the truth is, they have been caused by indulging in pernicious but alluring practices, destructive to both Body and Mind. Thus are swept from existence thousands who might have been o use to their country, a pleasure to their friends and ornaments to society.

☞ Be particular in observing the name and number, or you will mistake the place.

☞ Take notice, observe the name on the door and windows. A Cure warranted, or no Charge Made, in from One to Two Days.

NO MERCURY OR NAUSEOUS DRUG USED.

DR. JOHNSTON.

Member of the Royal College of Surgeons, London, Graduate from one of the most eminent Colleges of the United States, and the greater part of whose life has been spent in the first Hospitals of London, Paris, Philadelphia, and elswhere, has effected some of the most astonishing cures that were ever known, many troubled with ringing in the head and ears when asleep great nervousness, being alarmed at sudden sounds, and bashfulness, with frequent blushing, attended sometimes with derangement of mind, were cured immediately.

A Certain Disease.

When the misguided and imprudent votary of pleasure finds he has exhibited the seeds of this painful disease, it too often happens that an ill-timed sense of shame, or dread of discovery, deters him from applying to those who, from education and respectability, can alone befriend him, delaying till the unconstitutional symptoms of this horrid disease make their appearance, such as ulcerated sore throat, diseased nose, nocturnal pains, in the head and limbs, dimness of sight, deafness, nodes on the shin bones and arms, blotches on the head, face and extremities, progressing with frightful rapidity, till as last the palace of the mouth or the bones of the nose fail in, and the victim of this awful disease becomes a horrid object of commisseration, till death puts a period to his dreadful sufferings by sending to "that bourne from whence no traveler returns," To such, therefore, Dr. Johnston pledges himself to preserve the most inviolable secrecy, and from his extensive practice in the first hospitals in Europe and America, he can confidently recommend a safe and speedy cure to the unfortunate victim of this horrid disease.

It is a melancholy fact, that thousands fall victims to this dreadful poison, mercury, ruin the constitution and even send the unfortunate sufferer to an untimely grave, or else make the residue of his life miserable.

Take Particular Notice.

Dr. J addresses all those who have injured themselves by private and improper indulgences,

These are some of the sad and melancholy effects produced by early habits of youth, viz: Weakness of the Back and Limbs, Pain in the Head, Dimness of Sight, Loss of Muscular Power, Palpitation of the Heart, Dyspepsia, Nervous Irratability, Derangement of the Digestive Functions, General Debility, Symptoms of Consumption, &c.

MENTALLY—The fearful effects upon the mind are much to be dreaded: Loss of Memory, Confusion of Ideas, Depression of Spirits, Evil Forebodings, Aversion of Society, Self Distrust, Love of Solitude, Timidity, &c., are some of the evils produced.

Thousands of persons, of all ages, can now judge what is the cause of their declining health. Losing their vigor, becoming weak, pale and emaciated have a singular appearance about the eyes, cough and symptoms of consumption.

Dr. Johnson's Invigorating Remedy for Organic Weakness.

By this great and important remedy, weakness of the organs are speedily cured, and full vigor restored. Thousands of the most nervous and debilitated, who had lost all hope, have been relieved. All impediments to Marriage, Physical or Mental Disqualification, Nervous Irritability, Tremblings and Weakness or exhaustion of the most fearful kind, speedily cured by Dr. Johnson.

Young Men.

Who have injured themselves by a certain practice, indulged in when alone—a habit frequently learned from evil companions, or at school—the effects of which, are nightly felt, even when asleep, and if not cured, renders impossible, and destroys both mind and body should apply immediately.

What a pity that a young man, the hope of his country, and the darling of his parents, should be snatched from all prospects and enjoyments of life, by the consequences of deviating from the path of nature, and indulging in a certain secret habit. Such persons, before contemplating should reflect that a sound mind and body are the most necessary requisites to promote connubial happiness. Indeed, without these, the journey through life becomes a weary pilgrimage, the prospect hourly darkens to the view; the mind becomes shadowed with despair and filled with the melancholy reflection that the happiness of another, becomes blighted with our own.

OFFICE, No 7, SOUTH FREDERICK ST.
Baltimore, Maryland.

☞ Let no false modesty prevent you, but apply immediately, either personally or by letter.

N. B.—There are so many ignorant and worthless Quacks advertising themselves as Physicians, ruining the health of the already afflicted, that Dr. Johnston deems it necessary to say, especially to those unacquainted with his reputation, that his credentials or diplomas always hang in his office.

ENDORSEMENT OF THE PRESS.

The many thousands cured at this institution within the last fifteen years, and the numerous important Surgical Operations performed by Dr. Johnston witnessed by the reporters of the papers and many other persons, notices of which have appeared again and again before public, besides his standing as a gentleman of character and responsibility, is sufficient guarantee to the afflicted.

THE ROMANCIST

AND

New York Leisure Hour Companion:

A MONTHLY REPERTORY
OF
Novels, Tales, Essays, Histoirettes, Sketches, Anecdotes, and Facetiæ of the most lively and entertaining Character.

PRINTED ON THE FINEST CALENDARED PAPER, FULL QUARTO SIZE, WITH FANCY COLORED COVER, AND EMBELISHED WITH NUMEROUS ILLUSTRATIVE ENGRAVINGS.

THE Object of this Periodical is amusement and entertainment. Sharing the general expression, that a fistful of racy reading is a prize, while a dull book is the horrors, the Publishers promise that the pages of "The Romancist" shall embody a flow of good things, that in Car or Steamboat—at the breakfast table or tea table—at the sea-side or under the trees—will command both delight and approval. Avoiding equally the sick sentimentality of the "Rosa Matilda," and the trashy-dramatic orders of much modern literature, our selections will be found of the most relishing and racy description. We mean to keep up a constant supply of all that is choice and attractive—all, in short that possesses the true ring of the metal. Nor will that supply be "cribbed, cabined, or confined," but copious and varied, every way fitted for an hour of relaxation and ease, and that with both pleasure and profit.

A distinguishing feature in the "Romancist" is the regular publication of the WAVERLY NOVELS. Each chapter-head has a highly-finished engraving, illustrating the text, and four, or at most five, numbers will make each of these Novels complete; an acquisition, in itself, worth more than the whole annual subscription.

"Self praise is no praise." The publishers believe that if "The Romancist" exhibits the standard thus shadowed forth, success follows the enterprise. Failing to do so, success is not merited. As the proof of the pudding is the eating thereof, "The Romancist" is willing to be judged by this test. Quantum sufficit. Try it.

SCOTTISH AMMRICAN JOURNAL.

SECOND VOLUME,

6th November, 1858.

IN announcing a new volume of the SCOTTISH AMERICAN JOURNAL, the Proprietor begs to call attention to those features of the paper which have already secured for it a large share of support, and which ought to commend it to the patronage of a still more numerous class of readers.

The special feature of the paper is that it is a SCOTTISH journal containing notices of every event occurring in Scotland that can be regarded as of the least interest to natives of the country now residing on this continent. The news of the whole country is carefully collected and condensed, so that no event which it concerns Scotchmen to know is ever ommitted from the columns of the paper. Articles relating to Scottish subjects, original and selected, are also published from time to time and the more special character of the Journal is sustained by literary features of national interest in the form of tales, historical and miscellaneous sketches anecdotes and poetry.

While thus national in its character so far, these special features occupy comparatively limited space in the eight large pages of which the paper consists, three-fourths of which are devoted to news and other general matter calculated to be of interest to all classes of readers, and not to Scotchmen alone. A carefully compiled epitome of intelligence from England, Ireland the continent of Europe, and all parts of the world is given in every number, with extracts from the leading articles of the British Journals on the most interesting public topics of the day.

With a view to increase the popular interest of the "Scottish American Journal," and to add to its value as a family paper arrangements have been made for a series of attractive tales, founded chiefly on subjects connected with Scottish life. The first of these stories, entitled "Clara Howard: a tale of the Crimean War," commences with the first number of the new volume. A considerable instalment of the story will be given in every number till it is completed, and will form interesting reading for the winter evenings alike for old and young. It will be followed by a succession of other tales of equally popular character.

FAYETTEVILLE, NORTH CAROLINA:

WEDNESDAY MORNING, JUNE 8.

Picolomini.

This adorable little creature has gone to her Italian home. Picolomini was a great little princess; she has turned the heads of all our young bloods who have met with her. Old men have admired la petite Picolomini, and every one, both old and young, have looked upon her with admiration—except the ladies, the dear little creatures, who never care about any one who happens to take a feather from their caps. It has always been said that our ladies were too easily captivated with foreign counts and chevaliers. Young America was considered proof against all such vain titled nabobs, or honored countesses and princesses, but Picolomini has put an end to all such surmises, and proven to the world (of New York City at least) that our young gents are as liable to be captivated by the winning smiles of titled heiresses, as our young ladies are by those of the whiskered Italian Count or the trained and polished air of the English Nobleman. Picolomini has exported a vast amount of American goods—we mean the hearts of some fast young men, while she has broken those of others; and indeed many have broken their credit nearly by their determination to excel each other in their lavish expenditures upon her, by way of presents, gifts, and such things. We presume the young gent who presented her with a nice carriage and pair of bays lately would just as soon have them back again. The excitement created by the pleasant company of the young princess will soon have subsided, and then—yes, then he would like to have his team to drive a handsome American lady through New York. Picolomini is a favorite heroine. She has made herself wonderfully popular; and, the best of it is, she has made her thousands and tens of thousands out of the adorable yankees, who are always ready to open their purses for a foreign star.

Chapel Hill.

We would be guilty of a gross injustice did we neglect to speak of the gentlemanly and kind attention we received at this place from the managers of the various exercises.

The Marshalls (though unknown to us by name) are entitled to the greatest praise. We took occasion in the evening before we left to go into their ball room, we found every thing carried on in that orderly and decerous manner which should characterise an assembly of that nature. The supper table was certainly beautiful to look upon, and when handled and tasted it was absolutely equal to anything we have seen for some time. It fairly groaned under its load of the good things of this life; in fact the whole was well conducted. No one could go there without enjoying themselves; no one, we mean, who are fond of such amusements.

☞ Why don't we have one? Yes, that's it.—Why don't we get up a Cricket club amongst our young men. We have no sort of amusements; none of those manly amusements which characterised our fathers of old; amusements which imparted health and vigor to the physical man; strengthening his sinews and making him fit to perform the duties of a man. If we would indulge in such amusements as these there would be fewer delicate young gents; less of this inactive sleepy, lounging spirit among us. Why not try and get one started? We know you would all enjoy it.

☞ One of the greatest tyrants the world has ever been cursed with, has been called to his last account. King Bombay, of Naples, whose heel was continually pressed upon the weak and poor; whose aim was to grind down the helpless, and whose averice and love of power prompted him in many instances to commit crimes of the deepest die, while he held up and strengthened men of the vilest nature; men whose hands could not be cleansed of guilt though all the waters of the Atlantic were poured upon them.

His successor and son, Francis, is a prototype of the late monarch—a man of little character except an uncompromising and devoted attachment to the Papal power. Francis is a brother-in-law to the present Emperor of Austria—they married two sisters—and this fact is one of significance; it will no doubt cause the Neapolitan government either to side with Austria openly, or make Francis an enemy in the person of the Emperor of the Austrians.

Who did we see? Is it while we were away at Chapel Hill! Oh we saw lots of folks. We saw all the Editors in creation. We met with that sterling gentleman and whole-souled Democrat, Bro. Smith of the Newbern Daily Delta. We knew he was a whole team in himself long before we had the pleasure of seeing him in the flesh. We'd like to see him again soon.

Then we met Bro. Yates whom every one likes and we did enjoy his company. We also had the pleasure of meeting Dr. Gardner of the Pioneer, and J. Hinton, of the State, Elizabeth City, Mr. Murray of the Newbern Gazette, and Cole of the Greensboro' Times, all good men and true—we do like to meet with such amiable gentlemen, and we enjoyed their society very much indeed. Success attend them all, say we.

Ex-President Commonfort of Mexico is at present in New York, enjoying the cool and refreshing (?) air of the Metropolis. He wishes to see how the Americans live in that village and how they refrain from fighting and kicking up a dust generally.

The Military at Chapel Hill.

We can not but take this opportunity of saying something of that worthy and respectable corps the Wilmington Light Infantry. Their deportment at Chapel Hill and during the whole of their march from Wilmington to and from the former place was such as to elicit the respect and esteem of every one who had any opportunity of judging or seeing them. Combined with the gentlemanly conduct, their military bearing and courteous deportment, is the fact that in the whole of their long and arduous duty under arms, there was not one instance wherein one of the number could be said to be the worse of liquor. In fact we would be surprised were it otherwise—having a personal knowledge of many of them, we can bear testimony to the fact that the whole company is composed of high-toned respectable gentlemen. Capt. Hall, their worthy Commandant is a gentleman every inch of him, one for whom we have formed a high regard personally.

We would not forget Brig. General Cowan, who makes friends wherever he goes—himself and staff are men, the knowledge of whose character will command respect.

Our own LaLayette Cornet Band, which accompanied them are known to our readers, and a word from us commendatory of them would be superfluous. It is enough to say that their gentlemanly conduct attracted the attention of all, while their music was superior to any other band on the ground, except the regular Army band from Richmond, Va. Their playing has given them a State wide reputation.

THE CROPS.—Our exchanges from Pennsylvania, Ohio, Tennessee and other western and southwestern States speak of the crops as very promising. There will be an average yield of fruit this season also. In this section our friends tell us that the fruit will be more than an average crop. Apples not so plentiful as last season, but we will have a good crop of peaches.

HERE IT IS!—Glorious news ain't it? After all the talk; after all the gas and bragadocia, retailed and wholesaled by the Opposition; after all the ability of "Goggin around, around, around;" after all of honest John Letcher's sickness, he, yes he, honest John is elected by at least SIX THOUSAND MAJORITY.

Hurrah for the Old Dominion! Official returns have been received from 107 counties, giving Letcher a majority of 4,696. There are forty-four counties to hear from, and in these his majority must be sufficient to make up the Six Thousand. Three cheers for honest John!! Three groans for Goggin around.

☞ We call the attention of our readers generally to the notice of the daily prayer-meeting. Let it be well attended. We trust every one may see it their duty to be present if it be even for one hour.

THE BLACK REPUBLICANS CAN'T AGREE.—We learn from that sterling Democratic sheet the Pittsburgh "Post," of the 3d inst., that the Black Republican Convention in that place was a glorious fizzle. They were afraid to adopt any platform and after making an attempt to adopt a series of resolutions brought in by a committee appointed for that purpose, they just nominated their candidates and adjourned, leaving them to select their principles when in the field. What do the Black Republicans care about a set of principles—individually they have none, and and it would be madness to expect any from their party. The above assembly refused to pass resolutions in favor of a tariff for protection; a doctrine which has kept the Black Republicans alive in that State; the national (?) Black Republican platform of Philadelphia could not be endured, in fact the only resolution adopted was one pledging support to the nominees. We know the Democrats of that section, let them be true to their principles—fighting manfully for their Democratic faith, and victory is bound to perch upon their banner.

THE BEST YET.—The following is an original copy of a real letter of credit, given to a certain merchant in this county, and accompanying it, is an order for goods pursuant to said letter of credit. When the fact is known that the letter and order were sent to a Dry Goods house in the City of New York, it will appear rather a rare production. Just read it.

☞ We learn that it is contemplated to run the Stage from Raleigh to Spout Spring so soon as the Railroad is completed to that place. The mail will be carried by Railroad from Spout Spring to Fayetteville. We trust an arrangement of this nature may be made; it will cut down the staging from sixty to forty-five miles.

OUR PITTSBURG CORRESPONDENT.—There were some portions of the above correspondence which we did not feel justified in then publishing. It was in regard to Pennsylvania politics.

The reasons we will state to our correspondent in due time.

PITTSBURGH, May 31st, 1859.

The appearance of a copy of "THE NORTH CAROLINIAN" upon my table several days ago, having at its Editorial column's head the name of a valued friend, suggested to me the propriety of sending you a communication from this city: whether it will prove of any interest to your readers or not you must be the best judge. An almost total ignorance of Fayetteville and the likes and dislikes of its citizens, will in a great decree, constrain me in what I shall write. But to commence.

The Democratic State Convention of Ohio met a few days since and adopted a platform similar to that of 1856, and nominated a ticket composed of the strongest Douglas men in the State. Maine has also spoken for Douglas, and will send delegates to Charleston to urge his nomination. These States have given fresh energy and zeal to the popular sovereignty democrats of this State, and they are gaining more and more confidence in the result of the contest here. But enough of politics for the present.

Pittsburgh and her citizens have caught up the spirit of improvement, and portions of our city which have lain slumbering under the accumulated dust, dirt and soot of many years, are starting into a new existance. Buildings of large and splendid proportions are looming up where once stood lowly and humble structures. Fifth, Market, Wood, Smithfield, St. Clair, Water and other streets, are those upon which the costliest improvements are being made. Massive iron fronts are becoming quite plenty in this and in Alleghany cities. The old wooden structure which used to span the Alleghany river at St. Clair street, has been removed to be replaced by a more elegant and expensive one of wire. There will only be about half the number of piers there was under the old bridge.

Business was more than usually lively during the season which has just closed, and the dawn of a new era has been realized. There has been less rowdyism, and fewer crimes committed here in the last year than has ever before been known. About ten days ago the usual order of things was considerably disturbed by the execution of two men, named Christian Jacobi and David S Evans, for the murder of their wives. There was little or no sympathy created for these unfortunate mortals, for no one could fail to be convinced of their guilt.

As I have already written too much, and that in a great measure about nothing at all, I must close for the present, trusting to be able when next I write to give something which will be acceptable to your readers.

I am truly yours,

ZEPHYRUS.

DEAD MAN FOUND IN THE TRENT RIVER.—Yesterday morning a dead body was found washed up on the South shore of Trent River, opposite Newbern and about three hundred yards west of the Railroad bridge. At three and a half o'clock yesterday afternoon a jury of inquest was held over the body, special Coroner, E. H. Hurtt, acting. Evidence was given to the effect that the man was a German, named Chas. Smith,—was known in Wilmington—worked in a wood yard there and went to sea sometimes. Mr. Weil who deposed thus, said he was about 27 years old, and unmaried. Said although he was not a drinking man he seldom had money, and had to labor hard for a support.

Mr. W. C. Loftin, recognized the body as that of a man who boarded at his house a few days, about a fortnight ago. He left Mr. Loftin's with his board unpaid and without his carpet bag. Dr. Tull made the usual examination of the body and found no marks of violence. The body was examined and nothing found thereon save two pieces of pencil and some strings. The Jury rendered the following verdict: "That he was found dead in the waters of Trent river; cause of death unknown."—Newbern Daily Delta.

A STATE'S RAIL ROAD.—We learn from the last Atlanta Intelligencer, that the treasurer of the Georgia State rail road remitted to the State Treasurer $36,000, nett earnings of the road for the month of May. This amount was also paid in as the nett earnings for April, and we believe that not less than $25,000 have been paid into the State Treasury of Georgia, as the nett earnings of the road, for any month of the last twelve. Such a road is worth having, at no matter what cost. This road enriches the people as well as the State of Georgia, and makes us look with longing eyes for the completion of our road to Decatur, on the Tennessee river, which will pass through a far richer country than the State road of Georgia does.—Montgomery Mail.

OHIO POLITICS.—The Republicans of Ohio, in State Convention yesterday, nominated the following ticket: For governor, William Dennison, Jr.; Lieut. Governor, Robert C. Kirk; Supreme Court Judge, W. Y. Gholson; Auditor, R. W. Taylor; Treasurer, A. P. Stone; Secretary of State, A. P. Russell; Board of Public Works, John Gregory; School Comaissioner, Anson Smith. Judge R. P. Ranney is the Democratic candidate for Governor, State election October 11.

AMERICAN HONORS TO SCIENCE.—It is noticed with great satisfaction, in Berlin papers, and cannot fail to be gratifying to every American heart, that at the grave of Humboldt the United States were represented by their Minister at Berlin and a representative from different parts of the Continent. The arrangement was equally creditable to our Minister and to our country.

The Steamship Florida, Alabama, and Augusta, of the Savannah line, were yesterday sold on private terms, and bought by R. R. Cuyler, President of the Georgia and Central Railroad Company.

CITY OF WASHINGTON.

NEW YORK, June 7th, 1859.

The City of Washington arrived here last evening from Liverpool. She touched at Queenstown, and brings additional telegraphic dates from Berne, Switzerland, to the 25th ult., and Liverpool dates the 26th—one day later.

It is reported that Garibaldi, with five thousand men, had barricaded himself in the town of Varez, and is without cannon. Austrians in the neighborhood provided with artillery, and a fight had commenced.

The Bey of Tunis offers two regiments to Piedmont. The Sclavonic population on the coast of the Adriatic begin to show hostile feelings towards Austria.

Austrian sorces had left Amo and Milan, and were concentrating on the river Adda. The French and Sardinians were advancing

The accounts from Hungary are alarming. Kossuth intimates that he will soon be there.

A NEGRO SCARED TO DEATH BY AN ELEPHANT.—The Ouchita, (La.) Herald relates the following and calls it a case of "elephanticide." We think a better name would be negrocide, as it was the negro and not the elephant that was scared to death:

A negro man belonging to Dr. Sanders, of Holly Springs, Dallas county we understand, was frightened to death by one of Mable's elephants, week before last. The circumstances as we learned them, were these:—After the performance of the company at Holly Springs the elephants were removed to a short distance from the pavillion and confined in the bushes, to await the time of starting to the next place of exhibition; the negro not knowing they were there, was passing near by, when one of them passed his trunk around the body of the boy, drawing him gently towards his elephantship, the negro seeing the collossal proportions of the animal, with which the darkness of the night no doubt greatly magnified, made a herculean effort, and succeeded in escaping from the disagreeable embrace; he ran a short distance and fell to the ground, arousing the whole neighborhood with his cries; being unable to rise he was taken up and carried to the house, where he soon after died, the doctors say from no other cause than fright.

In St. Louis, the jury in the case of Miss Carstang vs. Shaw, for breach of promise of marriage, rendered a verdict for the full amount of the petition of the plaintiff, $100,000. It is understood that counsel for the defendant will file a demand to have the verdict set aside, and also a petition for a new trial.

AYER'S Cathartic Pills,

(SUGAR COATED,)

ARE MADE TO

CLEANSE THE BLOOD AND CURE THE SICK.

Invalids, Fathers, Mothers, Physicians, Philanthropists, read their Effects, and judge of their Virtues.

Headache, Sick Headache, Foul Stomach.

PITTSBURG, PA., May 1, 1855.

DR. J. C. AYER, Sir: I have been repeatedly cured of the worst headache any body can have by a dose or two of your Pills. It seems to arise from a foul stomach, which they cleanse at once. If they will cure others as they do me, the fact is worth knowing. Yours with great respect.

ED. W. PREBLE, Clerk of Steamer Corion.

Bilious Disorders and Liver Complaints.

DEPARTMENT OF THE INTERIOR, WASHINGTON, D. C., 7 Feb., 1856.

SIR: I have used your Pills in my general and hospital practice ever since you made them, and cannot hesitate to say they are the best cathartic we employ. Their regulating action on the liver is quick and decided, consequently they are an admirable remedy for derangements of that organ. Indeed, I have seldom found a case of bilious disease so obstinate that it did not readily yield to them. Fraternally yours,

ALONZO BALL, M. D., Physician of the Marine Hospital.

Dysentery, Relax, and Worms.

POST OFFICE, HARTLAND, LIV. CO., MICH., Nov. 16, 1855.

DR. AYER: Your Pills are the perfection of medicine. They have done my wife more good than I can tell you. She had been sick and pining away for months. Went off to be doctored at great expense, but got no better. She then commenced taking your Pills, which soon cured her, by expelling large quantities of worms (dead) from her body. They afterwards cured her and our two children of bloody dysentery. One of our neighbors had it bad, and my wife cured him with two doses of your Pills, while others around us paid from five to twenty dollars doctors' bills, and lost much time, without being cured entirely even then. Such a medicine as yours, which is actually good and honest, will be prized here. GEO. J. GRIFFIN, Postmaster.

Indigestion and Impurity of the Blood.

From Lee, Jr. V. U. Navy, Pastor of Methodist Church, Boston.

DR. AYER: I have used your Pills with extraordinary success in my family and among those I am called to visit in distress. To regulate the organs of digestion and purify the blood they are the very best remedy I have ever known, and I can confidently recommend them to my friends. Yours, J. V. HIMES.

WARSAW, WYOMING CO., N. Y., Oct. 24, 1855.

DEAR SIR: I am using your Cathartic Pills in my practice, and find them an excellent purgative to cleanse the system and purify the fountains of the blood.

JOHN G. MEACHAM, M. D.

Erysipelas, Scrofula, King's Evil, Tetter, Tumors, and Salt Rheum.

From a Extensive Merchant of St. Louis, Mo., 1856.

DR. AYER: Your Pills are the best purgative we sell that is great in medicine. They have cured my little daughter of about every sore upon her hands and feet that had proved incurable for years. Her mother has been long grievously afflicted with blotches and pimples on her skin and in her hair. After our child was cured, she also tried your Pills, and they have cured her.

ASA MORGRIDGE.

Rheumatism, Neuralgia, and Gout.

From the Rev. Jas. H. Brown of the Episcopal Church.

SAVANNAH RIVER HOUSE, SAVANNAH, GA., Jan. 16, 1856.

HONORED SIR: I should be ungrateful for the relief your skill has brought me if I did not report my case to you. A cold settled in my limbs and brought on excruciating neuralgic pains, which ended in chronic rheumatism. Notwithstanding I had the best physicians, the disease grew worse and worse, until, by the advice of your excellent agent in Baltimore, Dr. Mackenzie, I tried your Pills. Their effects were slow, but sure. By persevering in the use of them I am now entirely well.

SENATE CHAMBER, BATON ROUGE, LA., 5 Dec., 1855.

DR. AYER: I have been entirely cured by your Pills of Rheumatic Gout—a painful disease that had afflicted me for years.

VI. CENT SLIDELL.

For Dropsy, Plethora, or kindred Complaints, requiring an active purge, they are an excellent remedy.

For Costiveness or Constipation, and as a Dinner Pill, they are agreeable and effectual.

Fits, Suppression, Paralysis, Inflammation, and even Deafness, and Partial Blindness, have been cured by the alterative action of these Pills.

Most of the pills in market contain Mercury, which, although a valuable remedy in skilful hands, is dangerous in a public pill, from the dreadful consequences that frequently follow its incautious use. These contain no mercury or mineral substance whatever.

AYER'S CHERRY PECTORAL

FOR THE RAPID CURE OF

and for the relief of consumptive patients in advanced stages of the disease.

We need not speak to the public of its virtues. Throughout every town, and almost every hamlet of the American States, its wonderful cures of pulmonary complaints have made it already known. Nay, few are the families in any civilized country on this continent without some personal experience of its effects; and fewer yet the communities any where which have not among them some living trophy of its victory over the subtle and dangerous diseases of the throat and lungs. While it is the most powerful antidote yet known to man for the formidable and dangerous diseases of the pulmonary organs, it is also the pleasantest and safest remedy that can be employed for infants and young persons. Parents should have it in store against the insidious enemy that steals upon them unprepared. We have abundant grounds to believe the CHERRY PECTORAL saves more lives by the consumptions it prevents than those it cures. Keep it by you, and cure your colds while they are curable, nor neglect them until no human skill can master the inexorable canker that, fastened on the vitals, eats your life away.

All know the dreadful fatality of lung disorders, and as they know too the virtues of this remedy, we need not do more than assure them it is still made the best it can be. We spare no cost, no care, no toil to produce it the most perfect possible, and thus afford those who rely on it the best agent which our skill can furnish for their cure.

The 'Great Republic' Monthly.

WE HAVE THE HONOR TO ANNOUNCE that we issued, on or about the 1st of December last, so as to be in season to command the early attention of the public and the periodical trade, the first number of a new illustrated magazine, called THE 'GREAT REPUBLIC' MONTHLY.

It is intended to make this Magazine superior in every respect to anything ever before issued in this country. The general scope of its character can best be understood by its name. It will be thoroughly national—in no wise sectional or sectarian, and wholly impersonal. It will offer to the writers and thinkers of this Union a common field where they can meet on the highest ground of cotemporary literature. It will aim to gather about it every variety of intellect.

The range of articles will be a wide one, covering among other grounds, essays, sketches, humorous tales, stories, historical incidents, reviews, critiques, biographies, scientific articles, travels, table talk, dramas, incidents, politics, poems, ballads, stanzas, sonnets, music, correspondence, gossip &c., &c.

The Magazine will be profusely Illustrated in the highest style of wood engraving.

Each number will contain an original piece of music composed expresly for this work.

There will be two volumes a year of about 700 royal octavo pages each, commencing in January and July.

The rates of postage will not exceed three cents to each number to be paid in all cases at the office where it is received.

PROSPECTUS

WEEKLY DELTA.

THE WEEKLY DELTA will be issued every TUESDAY EVENING, and will contain twenty-four columns of well filled and interesting original and selected reading matter—giving the very cream of all general, commercial and political news of the week. In its columns, also agricultural, mechanical and all industrial pursuits shall be duly remembered, represented and catered for, while literature, religion and morality shall vest the whole with brilliancy, gentleness and dignity; thereby making it a publication that cannot and will not fail in being an ever welcome visitor to the parental domicile, there to inculcate, nourish and edify the nobler feelings of the soul—the finest and most exalted taste; and equally as pleasant a guest of the farmer and mechanic; a gem for the crown of the politician; a permanent fixture to the counting-room of the business man!

The political complexion of the WEEKLY DELTA will, of course, be strictly Democratic. In accordance with the DAILY DELTA which is published by us.

Being determined that the circulation of the WEEKLY DELTA, shall equal that of any other weekly publication in the State, we have put the price of subscription so low as to place the paper within the reach of every one. Our clubing rates are unusually low! Send for a specimen copy, and then make up a club; or send us $1.50 for yourself. Read our $500 OFFERED TOWARDS THE PURCHASE OF MT. VERNON!

BEST TALENT OF THE COUNTRY,

Wishing to do something in furtherance of the noble project in which the ladies of America are now engaged, I propose to give from the net proceeds of the LIVE GIRAFFE, Five hundred dollars to be appropriated towards the purchase of the home and grave of

GEORGE WASHINGTON.

THE FATHER OF HIS COUNTRY.

To raise the above-named sum, will require that I offer to the public, unusual attractions, both in the appearance and reading matter of my paper. This view of the question I have already considered, and partially matured, having secured a promise of contributions from North Carolina's most distinguished men, their productions to be styled

'MOUNT VERNON PAPERS'

First in my list of contributors I place the name of North Carolina's gifted orator and writer, Henry W. Miller, Esq., whose eloquence at the Bar and talent as a writer no southern man can surpass. His name alone, as contributor to such a cause, can but elicit the enthusiasm in behalf of Mount Vernon which it is my wish to inspire by this project.

Then my list of contributors will embrace the following gentlemen, from whose pens will appear an article each week throughout the year: Henry W. Miller, Esq; Duncan K. McRae, Esq; J. Parker Jordan Esq; Hon. Silon H. Rogers; Edward Cantwell, Esq; Ed. Graham Haywood, Esq; Hon. Warren Winslow; Rev. Rufus T. Heflin; Quentin Busbee, Esq., and James B. Shepard, Esq. Superior talent cannot be secured in the South, nor can the talent of the South be better employed, than in fostering a spirit similar to that which moved the mind of the immortal Washington, and a more suitable cause could not be presented for the fostering of such a spirit, than that which I now present.

To be enabled to give $500, I must increase my list to five or ten thousand, but, surely, the weekly contributions of such men as those whose names I present, will insure that number.

I propose to commence publication of the Mount Vernon Papers the first week in April, and hope by that time to have added 1000 or 2000 names of my list. Those who would commence with the beginning of the Mount Vernon Papers, will forward their names at once.

FOR THE Southern Literary Messenger.

One of the Cheapest Publications in the Country.

TWO volumes a year; each containing at least 480 pages, in neat style, with a fine cover and advertising sheet. The two volumes furnished for only Three Dollars a Year!

FOR THE YEAR 1859. TWENTY-EIGHT AND TWENTY NINTH VOLUMES.

In issuing the prospectus of the Twenty-eight and Twenty-ninth volumes of the 'Southern Literary Messenger,' commencing with the January number, the proprietors beg to assure the public that no exertions will be ommitted on their part to maintain the high character of the work, and to challenge the patronage of all who value sterling literary merit. For twenty-four years the Messenger has endeavored to reflect faithfully the Southern mind, while disdaining all narrow and sectional views, and has been alone among the monthly periodicals of America in Defence of the peculiar institution of the Southern country. To this office it will still be devoted, and will be promt to repel assaults upon the South, whether they come under the specious garb of fiction, or in the direct form of anti-slavery pamphlets. At this critical juncture, while our enemies are employing literature as their most prominent weapon of attack, the Southern people will surely not withhold their encouragement from a work whose aim it shall be to strike blows in their defence.

The Messenger will, as heretofore, present its readers with Reviews, Historical and Biographical Sketches, Novels, Tales, Essays, Poems, Critiques, and papers on the Army, Navy and other national subjects.

With a view to insure a large circulation of the Messenger, the proprietors have reduced the price of subscription, which is now only, in advance, or FOUR if not paid by the first of July in any year. Clubs remitting us Fifteen Dollars in one letter, will be entitled to six copies.

THREE DOLLARS PER ANNUM,

The editorial and critical department of the Messenger will continue under the charge of JOHN R THOMPSON, Esq., and will embrace copious notes on current literature, reviews of all new American or Foreign works of general interest and value. The editor's opinions will be always fearlessly and honestly avowed.

The business department is conducted by the undersigned, to whom all communications of a business nature must be directed.

MACFARLIN. FERGUSSON & CO.,

Corner of Bank and Twelfth sts., Richmond, Va.

☞ Booksellers, by ordering copies of the Messenger at once, shall receive it at greatly reduced prices.

☞ Postmasters throughout the Union are requested to act as agents in getting subscribers for us, for which they will be allowed ten per cent on all moneys remitted to us.

"ALL THE YEAR ROUND."

DICKENS NEW WEEKLY.

We have the pleasure of announcing that we have entered into arrangements with CHARLES DICKENS, for the issue of his new Publication entitled "ALL THE YEAR ROUND," each week, in New York, simultaneously with its issue in London, plates being taken from the English edition, and forwarded to us sufficiently in advance of publication for that purpose. The first number will appear in London and New York on Wednesday, May 4th, and will contain the commencement of a new story by CHARLES DICKENS, to be continued from week to week during about eight months.

Thus, it will be seen that American readers of "ALL THE YEAR ROUND," will obtain the stories and other contributions of Mr Dickens, and the staff of writers associated with him, embracing an array of distinguished talent with which no other publication can compare, several weeks in advance of their reaching this country through ordinary sources, and at the same time they are given to the public in London.

We will state that this arrangement has been consummated by the payment of a large sum of money to Mr. Dickens, yet the extraordinary interest which the announcement of the publication has excited in literary circles, the assurance which Mr Dickens has given that he shall devote to it all of his best energies, and the appearance of a new story from his pen, cannot fail to command for it at once a large circulation

The following announcement from Mr Dickins, will convey an idea of the character and aims of the work:

ADDRESS.

Nine years of HOUSEHOLD WORDS are the best assurance that can be offered to the public of the spirit and objects of "ALL THE YEAR ROUND."

In transferring myself, and my strongest energies, from the publication that is about to be discontinued, to the publication that is about to be begun, I have the happiness of taking with me that staff of writers with whom I have labored, and all the literary and business co-operation that can make my work a pleasure. In some important respects, I am now free greatly to advance on past arrangements. Those I leave to testify for themselves in due course.

That fusion of the graces of the imagination with the realities of life, which is vital to the welfare of any community, and for which I have striven from week to week as honestly as I could during the last nine years, will continue to be striven for, "all the year round." The old weekly cares and duties become things of the Past, merely to be assumed with an increased love for them and brighter hopes springing out of them, in the Present and the Future.

I look, and plan, for a very much wider circle of readers, and yet again for a steadily expanding circle of readers, in the projects I hope to carry through "all the year round." And I feel confident that this expectation will be realized, if it deserves realization The task of my new journal is set, and it will steadily try to work the task out. Its pages shall show to good purpose their motto, remembered in them, and with how much of fidelity and earnestness they tell

THE STORY OF OUR LIVES FROM YEAR TO YEAR.

CHARLES DICKENS.

EXTRAORDINARY SALE OF JEWELRY,

WITH A PREMIUM TO EACH PURCHASER

Worth from Two Dollars to Two Hundred.

THIS is no Lottery, but a fair and legitimate sale, in which the purecaser gets the value of his or her money in a GOLD PENCIL WITH GOLD PEN attached, or a GOLD LOCKET, worth $5; and in addition to the purchase each person receives a PREMIUM OF JEWELRY, not less in value than $2, and it may be worth $3, 5, 8, 10, 15, 20, 30, 50, or even $2-0.

Our Premiums are distributed in a fair and honorable manner, and as soon as the name of the purchaser is received with the $5, his pencil and pen and premium, or gold locket and premium, are put up in a small box, in a safe manner, and sent to the owner, by Mail, Free of Postage. Our plan, from long experience in the above business, has given general satisfaction, as each purchaser can sell or trade the above articles for all they cost him, and retain the Premium gratis.

We want a good AGENT in every part of the country to solicit purchasers; and Agents, to be successful, should first have a Pencil and Pen and premium, or locket and premium, or both, to exhibit; and the FIRST PERSON becoming a purchaser at any place, will receive the Agency for that neighborhood.

NO MONEY RISKED!

We propose to let a person know what premium he will receive before sending his money. Any lady or gentleman desiring one of the above articles, can send their name and address, stating whether they want the Pencil and Pen, or Locket, and we will make their selection and inform them by return mail what premium they are entitled to They can then have the privilege of sending for it if they choose. We cannot, however, give this privilege but once to any person; and we make this offer to establish the quality of our goods in a neighborhood. After a person becomes a purchaser, and accepts an Agency, we require all persons in that locality to send their $5 in advance through him.

And if any one is dissatisfied with their purchase, and an unbiassed person competent to judge says the articles are not worth more than the money paid for them, and in some cases TEN, or even FORTY times the amount, let such person return the goods and we will freely refund the money.

Among our premiums are articles suitable for ladies and gentlemen, such as Gentlemen's Gold and Silver Watches, Gold Vest and Guard Chains, Gold Sleeve Buttons, Gold Watch Keys and Seals, Gold Shirt Studs—plain and with settings; Gold Scarf Pins—new style; Gold Breast Pins; California Diamond Pins, Gold Rings, &c., &c.

FOR LADIES,

We have Gold Watches, Florentine, Mosaic, Gold Stone, Cameo, Garnet and Coral Breast Pins and Ear Rings, Gold Bracelets, Gold Sleeve Buttons, Gold Belt Slides, Gold Rings, &c. Also—

Pianos, Melodeons,

MUSICAL BOXES, ACCORDEONS, &C., &C.

Unexceptionable References given whenever required

N B—In sending your names, write the State, County and Town plainly, so as to avoid letters being miscarried.

PROSPECTUS OF THE PRESBYTERIAN.

The Presbyterian Church in North Carolina has long labored under a serious disadvantage from the want of a journal to advocate her claims and represent her interests. It is estimated that only 1000 Presbyterian Weeklies are taken in the bounds of our three Presbyteries We have 13,000 Communicants, and it is safe to infer that there are 30,000 Presbyterians in principle in the State Our Synod stands fifth in the Union in point of numbers, and her membership is greater than that of any Synod South or West of Pennsylvania.

Our sister States on the North and South, neither of which has a membership so large as ours, publish the Central, and the Southern Presbyterian, for the benefit of their people.

The time has come when the Presbyterian Church in North Carolina should likewise do her duty to her children. It is a conceded and important fact, that hundreds of our members will take a State paper who will take no other.

The Paper is needed to be the organ of our Synod and Presbyteries—to elevate and enlighten the piety of our membership by diffusing evangelical knowledge—to promote the cause of Education—to develop the talents of our Ministry, and to strengthen the attachment of our people to the soil and sanctuaries of their own State.

If our Church in other States, and other Churches in this State, can supply their members with a religious journal, why may not we?

Are North Carolina Presbyterians inferior in talent, energy and patriotism to their neighbors of the North or South, or to Christians of other denominations at home? With the same or better opportunities of accomplishing this work, shall we leave it undone? In the language of one of our most able and useful Ministers, an adopted son of our State, "It ought to have been undertaken 20 years ago, but it is not too late to begin to do right."

In the last two or three months, a fund of about $5000 has been subscribed as a permanent capital. At a meeting of the contributors held at Greensborough on the 14th of May,—Rev. A. Baker, Chairman,—the Paper was unanimously located at Fayetteville, under the name and title of the NORTH CAROLINA PRESBYTERIAN Rev Wm. N. Mebane and Rev. George McNeill were elected Editors: Rev. Messrs. George McNeill, Wm. N. Mebane, A. Baker and C. H. Wiley, and Messrs. George McNeill, Sr., John H. Cook and David Murphy were appointed an Executive Committee, to establish the Paper and manage its business affairs.

It is our wish and design to make the NORTH CAROLINA PRESBYTERIAN a journal of the first class, equal to the best in the country in typographical appearence and in adaptation to the wants of our Churches. Its columns will afford the latests intelligence, both foreign and domestic, and special care will be taken to give a full and accurate summary of State news. The name of the Paper is designed to be an exponent of its character and contents. From conviction, it will advocate the conservative, orthodox, Old School doctrines and order of the Church.

Our first appeal is to our own people—to N. C. Presbyterians. Whilst we rely confidently upon thier favor, we trust that the native sons of North Carolina who have found homes in other States, and the adopted citizens of our State who form so important an element in our Ministry and membership, will take a deep interest in this enterprise, and give it their hearty support.

TERMS: $2 per annum in advance, or on delivery of the first number; $2 50 in six months, $3 at the end of the year. To clubs of 25 or more, paying in advance and when the Paper is sent to one address, a discount of 10 per cent will be allowed. Our Ministers and Elders are earnestly desired to act as Agents, and all others friendly to the cause will please assist in procuring as many subscribers as possible. If a faithful and vigorous effort is made in the next two months by those who take a lively interest in this work, we will without doubt, be able to begin the publication at the end of that time with a paying subscription list of at least 3000.

☞ Address, Editors of the North Carolina Presbyterian, Fayetteville, N.C.

Fayetteville, May 20, 1857.

PROSPECTUS OF THE DAILY NORTH CAROLINIAN.

The fact that the Town of Fayetteville has been her own greatest enemy must apper evident to any man who will take into consideration that to every enterprise in which others have been engaged, she has contributed liberally, while her own interests have been forgotten by her, and, as a consequence, by others. Take into consideration the matter of Schools: our citizens were compelled for many years to send their children to be educated in other towns in the State, because it was thought impracticable to start one within our own limits. The project was, however, started, and the result is self-evident. We have now a High-School whose superior is not to be found in the State—one of which our citizens may well be proud; thus retaining within ourselves, and for our own advantages, an amount of money which, heretofore, was sent to benefit others.

Our State Railroads is another proof of this fact—the history of which every one is perfectly familiar with.—So, also, in the history of the Press. We have now, in the State, four daily papers; these papers are located in two towns. Two of these dailies receive more subscriptions from the town of Fayetteville than from any other place in the State—except the towns in which they are located. The population of Fayetteville is more than one of these towns, but yet she has to go to other places for the daily news.

None of these papers give a full account of the markets; in some of them we have only four or five articles of merchandise, and their prices stated. These papers cannot be in the hands of our merchants more than two hours earlier than one which is printed in Fayetteville, even were the market reports as full as desirable.

Taking all these things into consideration, and believing that a daily paper would be of vast importance to the place, we have determined to issue, in May next, the DAILY NORTH CAROLINIAN, should sufficient inducement be offered by our citizens. Let it not be said that the thing is impracticable. This has been said of every project started, but, after a trial, many were surprised that they had ever considered it so. All that is necessary in this instance is an effort—and it will succeed.

Let not old fogies shake their heads knowingly, and say that it is an indication of Young Americanism, or that the idea of a daily newspaper in Fayetteville is ominous of the end of world. Daily papers have been started with far worse prospects of sucess; comets have approached our earth, and retreated from us again but "the end is not yet!" We trust that a daily paper in Fayetteville will not cause the end of any one thing or principle, except a want of interest in our own prosperity.

To manufacturers of Turpentine this will be a paper upon which they can rely for market reports. We will be able to supply them with the market prices within two hours after the arrival of the mails from Warsaw. It is important that our citizens should now begin to look to their own interests; if they do not, who will?

The DAILY NORTH CAROLINIAN will be devoted to the interests of the South generally, and of our own State and Town particularly. Our politics, like the laws of the Medes and Persians, will remain ever the same.

We have made arrangements in the principal cities to have a true daily account of the market prices. These reports will be full, embracing nearly every article of merchandise—at least, every article of any importance to our citizens. The NORTH CAROLINIAN will be issued every forenoon.

The terms of subscription, $6 per annum in advance, or three cents per copy—to be paid to the carrier
